Your undersigned Court in discharge of the duties assigned him by a decree entered in the above styled Cause on the 14th day of March 1893. advertised that he would discharge said duties at his office on the 17th day of May 1893. and also gave the Defendant John Reason a written notice of the time and objects of said action.
And on said day the defendant John Reason appeared before me and exhibited receipts Nos. 1 2 & 3. Nos. 1 & 3 being credited on notes placed in my hands by the Plff's atty, but No. 2. was not credited. and on these evidences, I have prepared and file herewith a calculation marked "X.Y.", which shows a balance of principal & interest due on said notes June 1st 1893 1 the sum of $257.74, to which I add the accumulated costs of said Chancery Cause down to June Term 1893. From the time of renting Feby 26th 1884, showing the total sum of $279.27 necessary to pay off said notes and dismiss said Cause from the docket.

The Defendant Reason claims to have an other receipt of $44.00 which should be a credit on these notes, and should he find the same he would be entitled to a credit therefor.
